Drainage 201

How to Navigate Regulations Impacting Local Drainage Decisions

August 25, 2010
9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Registration begins at 8:30 a.m.

The purpose of the seminar is to promote an understanding of the laws and regulations that control drainage of land in Indiana. Seminar attendees will gain a greater understanding of drainage law and dispute resolution.

This year's focus is state and federal regulatory issues and how they impact local drainage decisions.

Farmers, public officials, agency personnel, attorneys and members of the general public are invited.

Continuing education credit for attorneys is being sought.

Register early as attendance is limited. Payment or photocopy of payment must accompany registration form. Sorry, no credit cards accepted.
